What's new:

is a small town 7 km away from Zhengzhou, and the location was carefully chosen so as to get a wide direct view of Yu Emperor. Yu Emperor is the name of the CEO of King Wild Rabbit. We noticed that he was camping on top of the mountain before he started to interact with his new companion, thus we decided to film at the location for the day. View from the location. This is the watering hole before he got the message. I don't think it would be a very good idea to go for the "Lion's kiss" right away. There are some other entities camping at this location. I don't see any letters in Chinese. In this video, the line about clouds is actually supposed to be "fuck your mother". I'm being discreet and trying to be gentle on the bush. Suddenly, there is a MEI-JIAN!! This is the first time I have seen a MEI-JIAN in my life! YU EMPRESS!! I can confirm that Yu empress is the one who initiated the line-up, and Yu empress and Lasun have become good friends. I think they probably like Chinese boba. I am currently waiting for a message from Ying empress. A man in this location. I enjoy the view. There was so much damn pig down here (I use the "pig" as a verb). This is the practice the new members, the one from HongKong and the one from LA. The one from LA is playing the spoon game, and currently a man is playing with his genitals. He is quite happy. I don't think he is upset that he was hired a couple of days ago. They are probably beginners, and one of the goals is to go and have fun with girls. The man with the genital-spooning is so contented in this state. Here are his genitals, because it's very close to the front camera. I want to see them face-up. The man who is playing with the king is the King of the Bums. Unfortunately, he don't seem very good at reading a leaf. What??? What??? The King of the Bums (King Wild Rabbit) is a very "special" introduction for people who want to be
